

CURRICULUM VITAE - Barbara Bourne Jensen

Training

- Psychological counselling (post graduate) with special training in group work, individual and family counselling (Australia)
- Psychotherapy
- Organisational Development
- Psychodrama
- Sociology and Education qualifications in adult education, English as a Foreign Language and Science teaching up to University Entrance level students

Work History

- Pre 1982. Teacher of Science and English up to university entrance level at various schools in Australia, Hong Kong, Japan and Canada
- 1982-1989. Director of Education and Training and then Director of Counselling at the Family Planning Association (W.A.)
- 1989-1992. Educator of Behavioural Science at Curtin University W. Australia
- 1989-1996. In private practice as Organisational Change and Development Consultant, Business Psychologist and Psychotherapist in Western Australia in both the public and private corporate sectors
- 1996- present. In private practice as Business Psychologist, Psychotherapist and Consultant in UK, Denmark, Finland and Italy

International Experience

- Workshops, courses, process facilitation and mentoring in organisations in change process, team skills, appraisals, communication, stress and conflict management, leadership development, workplace counselling in Australia, U.K., Denmark, Finland and Italy
- Multicultural and cross cultural experience with participants from European, Middle Eastern and Asian cultures
- Based in Denmark